

Humbly I submit the following.

I was going to attach the 2 suggested wordings to consider, better and BEST .....

But it seems I can only attach one file. So, please see the 2 suggestions below.

NOTE: Re: usage of "misdemeanor" - I find NONE under Tier II. Suggest using "Tier I and Tier II offender if you deem it is needed.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That § 9.1-910 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 9.1-910. Removal of name and information from Registry.

A. Any person required to register, other than a person who has been convicted of any (i) Tier III offense, (ii) two or more offenses for which registration is required, provided that such person had been at liberty between such convictions or adjudications (iii) a violation of former § 18.2-67.2:1, or (iv) murder, may either submit a formal removal request to the Virginia State Police on such form required by the State Police or petition the circuit court in which he was convicted or the circuit court in the jurisdiction where he then resides for removal of his name and all identifying information from the Registry.

A person who is required to register for a single as a Tier I offender offense may petition the court submit a removal request form along with a criminal history record check processed within the previous 45 days of the form submission to the Department of State Police no earlier than 15 years and one day from the later of the date of initial registration or the date of his last conviction for (a) a single violation of § 18.2-472.1 or (b) any felony. If the potential applicant has been convicted of a misdemeanor or felony offense, or more than one violation of § 18.2-472.1 within the previous 15 years and one day, then such person shall not submit a removal request form but may petition the court pursuant to subsection B.

A person who is required to register for a single as a Tier II offender offense may petition the court submit a removal request form along with a criminal history record check processed within the previous 45 days of the form submission to the Department of State Police no earlier than 25 years and one day from the later of the date of initial registration or the date of his last conviction for (1) a single violation of § 18.2-472.1 or (2) any felony. If the potential applicant has been convicted of a misdemeanor or felony offense, or more than one violation of § 18.2-472.1 within the previous 25 years and one day, then such person shall not submit a removal request form but may petition the court pursuant to subsection B.

B. A petition may not be filed until all court ordered treatment, counseling, and restitution has been completed. The court shall obtain a copy of the petitioner's complete criminal history and registration, reregistration, and verification of registration information history from the Registry and then hold a hearing on the petition at which the applicant and any interested persons may present witnesses and other evidence. The Commonwealth shall be made a party to any action under this section. If, after such hearing, the court is satisfied that such person no longer poses a risk to public safety, the court shall grant the petition. In the event the petition is not granted, the person shall wait at least 24 months from the date of the denial to file a new petition for removal from the Registry.

C. The State Police shall remove from the Registry the name of any person and all identifying information upon receipt of an order granting a petition pursuant to subsection B.

D. The State Police shall remove from the Registry the name of any person and all identifying information within 30 days of receipt of the removal request form upon determining that such person has met the requirements pursuant to subsection A.

2. That the Virginia State Police shall develop a form for requesting removal from the Sex Offender and Crimes Against Minors Registry (the Registry) and make such form available on its website on or before October 1, 2023. Such form shall also include information on how to obtain a criminal history record check, the link to the record check form, the cost of the record check, and the address to which the removal request form shall be submitted. The Virginia State Police shall send a letter by first-class mail notifying every person currently on the Sex Offender Registry of the provisions of this act relating to removal from the Registry on or before October 1, 2023.
