

“STRIKE UP THE BAND”: Celebrating America250
on tour with the USA Pops Orchestra, Featured Artists, Singers, Dancers, and more!

Join us for memorable performances of music, dance, and singing of the American spirit as we present “STRIKE UP THE BAND” an ambitious production show in honor of the America250 semiquincentennial. Enchanting melodies are brought to life by world-class musicians of the USA Pops Orchestra joined by the performances of renowned featured artists. The America250 Singers and Dancers will take the stage, join the symphony and weave together a tapestry of choreography and harmonies.

The audience will feel the pulse of America's rich history and cultural diversity as we journey through the nation's musical legacy. From toe-tapping classics to contemporary favorites, “STRIKE UP THE BAND” will leave you spellbound, celebrating the indomitable spirit tapping classics to contemporary favorites. “STRIKE UP THE BAND” will be on tour in the United States performing in theaters and amphitheaters beginning Memorial Day Weekend 2025 through December 2026.
