

For natural ground cover, only 10% of rainfall runs off. The runoff percentage increases as imperviousness increases. For land that is 75-100% impervious, 55% of rainfall runs off.